

Marginalité, économie et christianisme

Atelier de travail n° 2
du programme MARGEC

Workshop 2
of the MARGEC project

The Material Running of the Mendicant Friaries in Central Europe (c. 1220 – c. 1550).
Towards an Inventory of Textual Sources

Lundi 25 mars 2013 / Monday, March 25th, 2013
PRAGUE, Akademické Konferenční Centrum
Husova 4a, Praha 1

organisé par / organized by Ludovic Viallet avec la participation de / in cooperation with :

Centre d'Histoire Espaces et Cultures (CHEC) – Université Blaise Pascal, Clermont-Ferrand 2
Centre de Recherches Historiques de l'Ouest (CERHIO) – Université Rennes 2
Collegium Europaeum – Charles University & Czech Academy of Sciences

9:00 – 12:30 a.m. :

Ludovic VIALLET (CHEC) : Introduction

- Grégory GOUDOT (CHEC) :
Inventory and Cartography: some Preliminary Remarks about the IT Tool
- Christian-Frederik FELSKAU (Freie Universität, Berlin) :
Economy-related Sources of the Franciscans and the Poor Clares in Bohemia
(from the beginnings to the Observant Movement)
- Petr HLAVÁČEK (Charles University) :
The Sources of the Observant Franciscans in Bohemia
- Beatrix ROMHANYI (University Karoli G., Budapest) :
Mendicant Hungarian accounting Sources

2:00 – 5:00 p.m. :

- Gergely KISS (University of Pécs) :
Hungarian Charters of Foundation with Endowment Clauses and Charters of Donation
 - Carmen FLOREA (University of Cluj) :
Urban Charters and the Material Running of Transylvanian Friaries
 - Mária LUPESCU MAKÓ (University of Cluj) :
Testaments and Donations Concerning the Dominicans, Franciscans and Augustinian Hermits in Transylvania
- Marie-Madeleine de CEVINS (CERHIO) : Conclusions